

Beautiful. Timeless. Still Available...

Resident Spotlight: Frederick A. Requarth

Frederick A. Requarth was born to John Henry and Maria Catharine Requarth on November 9, 1835 in Germany. Frederick, his father and siblings arrived in America in January 1848 and soon set out for Ohio. His father settled on a farm in Clay Township in Montgomery County and at the age of seventeen, Frederick served an apprenticeship in lathe work at Blanchard and Brown, a business that specialized in making carriage wheels, spokes and hubs in the downtown area. On August 3, 1857, Frederick married Regina E.

Hueffelmann, a native of Hanover, Germany and made their home in Dayton. Regina died in 1870 and Frederick married for a second time to Augusta Matilda Klawon, a 19-year old German immigrant.

In 1860, Henry W. Meyer and Frederick opened a woodworking shop at Fourth Street and Wayne Avenue in Dayton. The men made a name for themselves as stair builders and manufacturers of balusters and newel posts.

In 1895, he moved the company to it's present day location at 447 E. Monument Avenue. This family owned business is now under the leadership of Alan Pippenger, the great-great grandson of Frederick.

The family and the business has seen its share of hard times but have survived them all including a fire in 1895, which wiped out its entire inventory; the 1913 flood; and a second fire in 1972. In the 1960s, Requarth opened three Lumber Mart retail stores but eventually sold them to Wolohan Lumber Co.

Frederick August Requarth died on April 15, 1910 at the age of 74. Regina, his first wife, died on April 25, 1870 at the age of 34 and Augusta Matilda, his second wife died on December 13, 1912 at the age of 57. They are all located in Section 102 Lot 1426.

Summer Work, Earn and Learn Program

The Summer Work, Earn and Learn program was so successful in 2016 that we brought it back in 2017. Ten area high school students spent two days a week for ten weeks working at Woodland with the horticulture grounds crew. The students re-established a garden at the point of Section 122. They removed failing bushes, cleared the ground, designed a layout and selected plants for the garden. Other smaller gardens and planting areas were maintained by the students that included plant selection, planting, watering and weeding.

The students were taught the proper way to clean and restore monuments using an environmentally safe cleaning agent as well as good ol' elbow grease. The students were given the opportunity to try some of the equipment used at the cemetery and to learn safety procedures while operating such equipment.

And lastly, the kids were given a guided tour that focused on the notables of Woodland and their significance to the history of Dayton.

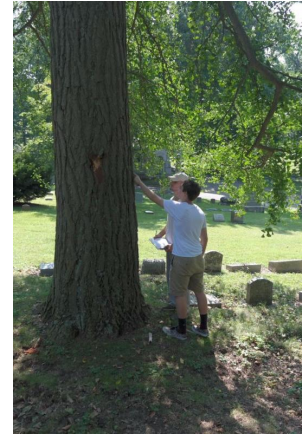

Well done Kayla, Meg, Hezekiah, Michael, Jenna, Katherine, Danielle, Armani, Frederick and Alexis!

Sinclair Summer Bridge Community Engagement Program

The Summer Bridge program is a week long orientation for first year students attending Sinclair College in the fall semester. The idea behind the community engagement track is to spark engaged citizenship of the students and to show them the best that Dayton has to offer.

Mary Rospert, the program coordinator, and 25 students arrived on July 19th ready to work. While six students took on the task of doing an inventory of trees in fifteen of the over 130 sections at Woodland, the remainder of the students worked on the cleaning and restoration of three of Woodland's most visible family mausoleums: Ritty, Tole and Nevin.

After their hard work, the students were led on a guided tour through Woodland stopping at the grave sites of the many notables including the Wright Brothers, Paul Laurence Dunbar, John Van Cleve, George Newcom, and Daniel Beckel just to name a few.

All of the students then took in the scenic view of the Gem City at Lookout Point. If your classroom is interested in participating in a like project, call us at 937-228-3221 to set up a consultation of projects and activities available.

Windows of Woodland

Parsifal Mosaic

This mosaic tile mural, the only one in the Mausoleum, is inspired by the Wagnerian opera which dealt with Parsifal's indifference to the Holy Grail held in high esteem by the knights of the castle. Eventually, Parsifal recognizes the significance of the Holy Grail and starts out in search of it. The opera was first produced in America in 1903 in New York City.

You are invited to visit the Mausoleum to view all of the beautiful stained glass windows within at your leisure or join us for a guided tour on Thursday, October 5 at 9:00 a.m. Please RSVP to 937-228-3221.

The Mausoleum is open daily from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

Photos along the walls were submissions to our annual photo contest that is held in September of each year. Patrons and guests of the cemetery are encouraged to take photos throughout the year. Volunteers Needed!

Woodland is seeking volunteers to lead tours and present programs to the public. If you like history and enjoy walking through the cemetery call us now for immediate training. Not interested in leading a tour, we have other positions as well: historical research and helping to plan out new tours, assisting with special events, public speaking engagements, researching family histories, sewing costumes for special events, researching and tagging trees and plants in the arboretum, office work, etc.

For more information on these or any of our volunteer activities, please contact Angie Hoschouer at 937-228-3221 or ahoschouer@woodlandcemetery.org.

Continuing Education Credit for Funeral Directors and Embalmers

"Death Out of Order" is very fitting for the times we are currently living in. Joel Getts, Th.M., Ph.D. will be discussing the death of a child or young adult due to any number of reasons and how it impacts the surviving parents; why a child's death is viewed in the wrong order; how families in this situation may need different guidance and attention; and how best the funeral director can service the family. This program is approved for 3 CEU's for Ohio Licensed Funeral Directors and Embalmers.

The program will be held in the Mausoleum at Woodland Cemetery and Arboretum located at 118 Woodland Avenue in Dayton.

Reception and light refreshments to follow.

Registration is required. Please contact Angela McCracken at 937-228-3221 or angela@woodlandcemetery.org.
